ACTIVITIES & EVENTS

Meet Our Mascot

We are pleased to introduce our newly named Kingfisher House mascot, Kooki.

Kooki is a handmade creation, full of colour and character, and has already become a familiar and welcome presence around the home. Created by our Activities Manager, Naz, every detail has been carefully put together, making it something quite special for both residents and staff.

We are delighted to have Kooki as part of life here at Kingfisher House.

Baking Sessions

Our baking sessions have been a real highlight, with residents coming together to make delicious homemade brownies. The kitchen was filled with laughter, conversation, and the unmistakable smell of freshly baked treats.

Baking is a simple but meaningful activity. It brings people together, encourages conversation, and often sparks memories of time spent cooking at home. Of course, the best part is getting to enjoy the finished results, and the brownies went down very well. Well done to everyone who took part.

Believe Circus Visit

We recently welcomed Suzie from Believe Circus, who brought a fun and engaging activity to the home. Residents had the chance to try their hand at spinning plates, which proved both challenging and entertaining.

There was plenty of laughter along the way, as well as a good amount of concentration. It was something a little different, and it was great to see everyone getting involved and giving it a go.

CELEBRATIONS

Special Birthday Celebrations

We have enjoyed celebrating several birthdays recently, each one bringing residents, staff, friends, and family together.

One afternoon in particular was filled with music, laughter, and a relaxed atmosphere as everyone joined in to mark a special resident's birthday. Our entertainer, Ally Alcorn, brought great energy to the day, helping create a lively and enjoyable celebration.

We also had the pleasure of hosting a very special 80th birthday. Family and friends joined us for the occasion, enjoying a buffet, refreshments, and plenty of time together. It was a lovely afternoon, full of conversation, smiles, and shared memories.

Moments like these are an important part of life in the home, helping to create a sense of connection and belonging.

STAFF CORNER

Employee Recognition Awards

We are proud to recognise two members of our team who have recently received employee recognition awards.

Emma, our Administrator, has been recognised for consistently demonstrating our value of being respectful. Her professionalism, kindness, and willingness to support others make a real difference every day.

Liam, our Maintenance Manager, has been recognised for his passionate approach to his role. His energy, commitment, and positive attitude are valued by both residents and staff.

Thank you both for your hard work and for contributing to the positive environment at Kingfisher House. Please join us in congratulating Emma and Liam.
